Peace Treaty Expected to be Ready For Consideration by Allied Parliaments at That Time

COMMISSIONERS REPORTING

Reparation Section Understood not to Have Fixed Definite Sum For Indemnities

(By United Press.)

Paris, June 11.—The German peace treaty is likely to be presented to the allied and associated powers parliaments for ratification the week beginning June 23 according to information from reliable sources today.

Premier Orlando at his recent conference with his cabinet decided to summon the Italian parliament June 19. The French parliament is in session as is the American congress. The Germans have called the national assembly to meet at Weimar on Friday. The British Parliament is taking the pentecostal vacation but will reassemble June 24.

Premier Orlando as the result of instructions from Italian cabinet is reported to have rejected the proposed solution of the Adriatic question, which included independence of Fiume.

Of the sixteen commissions studying the German counter proposals, all have reported except the one handling the economic section. The commission on the Hungarian, Roumanian and Bohemian boundary term reported this morning.

The Big Four was in conference this afternoon. The warfare involving Hungary, Bohemia and Roumania was to be taken up.

The Big Four today completed the reparation section of the reply to the German counter proposals and ordered this portion of the note to be printed immediately. It is understood the allies refused to fix a definite sum for indemnities.

Allied and German financial experts were to confer in Versailles today.

Chancellor Renner's first note in protest against the Austrian treaty, delivered today, took up the economic situation and declared the treaty rendered the industrial and commercial life in Austria impossible.

REVIEW BOARD WILL REASSESS THE CITY

Definitely Decides to Visit Every Taxpayer, Beginning Tomorrow, to Raise Valuations

TO BE IN OFFICE AFTERNOONS.

The county board of review has definitely decided to reassess Rushville city by visiting every taxpayer. The board has had this matter under consideration ever since it was discovered that there were inequalities in the city assessments and that the city did not make the same rate of gain in valuations that other divisions of the county did.

The board will devote its time in the morning to reassessing and will be at its office in the auditor's office in the afternoon to hear taxpayers who have any complaints to make regarding their assessments.

A full session of the board was not held today as Will H. McMillin, county auditor, and Charles A. Frazer, treasurer, who are members of the board, attended the Shriners convention in Indianapolis. The other three members of the board, however, disposed of no matters in which the opinion of the majority was all that was needed.

TESTIFY HOW THEY OBTAINED TREATY

Three International Bankers Before Senate Committee Investigating Alleged Leak

EACH EXPLAINS HIS SOURCE

All Declare Money Resources of America Must be Used to Rebuild The Old World

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 11.—The money resources of the United States must co-operate with American bankers and European government in mobilizing American dollars to help the old world.

Three international bankers, J. P. Morgan, Frank Vanderlip, and Henry Davison, today told the senate relation committee why Wall street was interested in the peace treaty and league of nations.

From these witnesses the committee of investigation received the following statements in its investigation of the league whereby the treaty got into the hands of New Yorkers while denied the senate.

Davison: That he got copies on May 19 from Thomas Lamont, chairman of Morgan and company and expert adviser to the American mission in France; that his principal interest was as head of international Red Cross societies but that he was also deeply interested in the international banks; that the United States must co-ordinate money and help.

Morgan: That American money must be poured into normal production restoring and thus protecting European money for American goods.

Vanderlip: That the government should sanction and aid in the co-operation of American bankers to finance the old world, all except Russia.

The bankers all emphatically pointed out that the United States must co-operate in helping to guarantee European welfare.

Vanderlip created a strong sentiment in English and French circles when he stated that the United States expects repentance of billions loaned them. They declared that the money is regarded as part of America's share because of her late entrance into the war.

Officials of Commercial Telegraphical Union Says it Will be a Fight to the Finish

EFFECT NOT TO BE FELT HERE

C. I. & W. Operators Will Not Accept Western Union Business if so Ordered by Union

(By United Press.)

St. Louis, June 11.—General orders for railroad telegraph operators to refuse Western Union and Postal business will be issued today.

"We have not the order as yet, but expect to issue it within the next hour," H. J. Mohler, general chairman of the telegraph committee of the Missouri Pacific railroad, declared. He said the same was being done by the general chairmen of telegraph committees of all railroads.

Chicago, June 11.—The nation wide strike of telegraphers against the Western Union and postal telegraphers began promptly at 7 a. m. today. Officials of the Commercial Telegraphical Union of America declared the fight would be to a finish and that from forty to fifty thousand operators and other wire workers will walk out.

Contradicting statements were issued here today by striking telegraphers and the companies. Reports from the central states showed that portions of operations left jobs but in most cases workers remained on their jobs. At Chicago telephone officials stated that no employees were out. Service in the city showed no signs of strike.

President Koenenkamp said reports were encouraging and that 60,000 would be on strike before the end of the week. He declared that five hundred postal employees are now on strike in Chicago.

E. C. Collins, the Postal's general superintendent of the Chicago division, said only 75 men were out here. A. C. Kronhite, manager of the Lake division of the Western Union company, said that the entire force of 8,000 in this division was at work.

Western Union dispatchers said shortly after seven o'clock that no Western Union men quit work in Chicago. Postal telegraphers who worked during the early morning quit at seven. Many others failed to show up. It was impossible to give the number of striking postal employees, dispatchers said.

J. P. Campbell, secretary of the Commercial Telegraphical Union of America, said that a report as to the exact number of men out in the United States might be expected

WILL STOP MEAT DELIVERY

Local Markets Refuse to Pay Increase Demanded by Benson Co.

The three Rushville meat markets using the Benson delivery system will not deliver meat after Saturday night, it was announced today and people with a taste for meat will have to walk after it. It was stated that the owner of the Benson delivery system raised the price which they charged the meat markets for delivering and the proprietors of the markets decided that they could not pay more for delivery without increasing the price of meat, which they did not want to do. The result was the decision to stop delivering. The Peoples Meat Market, H. A. Kramer and the Weeks Fresh Meat & Provision Co. are the markets now using the Benson system.

TWO CEMENT ROADS CERTAIN THIS YEAR

Bond Issue for Willard Tribby Highway in Posey Township Approved by State Board.

WORK STARTED ON WEIR ROAD

Contractor Has Assurances Bonds Will be Sanctioned—Favorable Action on Cross Issue.

At least two cement roads will be built in Rush county this summer for work has already been started on one—the John F. Weir road in Noble township, and the bond issue for the second—the Willard Tribby road in Posey township, has been approved.

The construction of these two roads, as well as the Chester-Cross macadam road, on the Center-Jackson township line, is assured, because the state board of tax commissioners yesterday put their O. K. on the Cross and Tribby roads and the contractor for the Weir road, John Miller of Lebanon, has such good assurances that the state board will act favorably on that issue that he has already begun the grading preparatory to building the road.

The Weir road connects with the south end of the Frank Capp cement road, which extends to the Noble-Rushville township line, but does not run to the county line because the Noble township road fund did not contain enough money, when the petition was granted, to build it that far.

Financial arrangements have also been made to take care of these three roads, although the bonds were not taken when offered by the county treasurer. Due to the government's liberty loans, roads have not been selling at par and bonding and banking houses will not bid on road bond issues until they first make certain that those interested in the roads will make up the difference between par and the price at which they are quoted on the market, or will agree to take the bonds at par. The county can not sell the bonds below par for the reason that enough money would not be realized from the sale to pay for the road.

Arrangements were made soon after the Tribby road bond issue was offered, when it was found there would be no bidders at par, for the Arlington bank to take the issue. The people of Arlington and Posey township are especially interested in this road because it begins at the intersection of the Carthage and Indianapolis pikes and runs north through Arlington to the first cross road north of Arlington. Lawrence and Ennis of Arlington have the contract and are expected to begin work at once on the improvement.

It was reported today that the same arrangements had been made

HOG SALE SETS NEW MARK

Auction at Milroy Tuesday Yields The Sum of $25,940.75

Probably the largest hog sale in the history of Rush county was conducted at the Frank McCordie sale barn in Milroy yesterday when approximately 1,400 head of feeding hogs ranging in weight from fifty to one hundred and fifty pounds were sold to the highest bidders. The sale yielded—McCordie and Jackman of Milroy and Dusty Miller of this city, who shipped the hogs into the county, the sum of $25,940.75. Buyers were present from all parts of Rush county and there were many from elsewhere in the state. The three men who conducted the sale guaranteed the hogs to be in good condition when sold.

CROWD HERE FOR EXERCISES

Gathers Early For Annual Educational Day Program at 2 P. M.

The crowd began to gather early for the annual county Educational Day exercises, which were held this afternoon, beginning at two o'clock, at the Graham Annex auditorium. The main address was to be delivered by the Rev. L. E. Brown, pastor of the Main Street Christian church, and there was to be music by an orchestra. The Rev. J. H. French of Glenwood was on the program to pronounce the invocation, and following the address, diplomas were to be awarded to 127 eighth year graduates of the county by County Superintendent C. M. George.

SHRINERS BEGIN BALLOTING TODAY

Two Positions Instead of One to be Filled by Election Due to Death During Year

4 NOBLES SEEK CAPTAINCY

Indications Are Committee on Time and Place Will Report in Favor of New Orleans

Indianapolis, Ind., June 11.—Election of officers of the Imperial Council, Ancient Arabic Order of Mystic Shrine, and the selection of either New Orleans, or Portland, Ore., for the 1920 national convention were the two important business considerations before the representatives of the imperial council in session at Murat theater today.

Balloting on the officers was started at 9 a. m. As is customary the present officers, with the exception of William S. Brown, of Pittsburgh, imperial treasurer and Benjamin W. Rowell, of Boston, imperial recorder, which offices are stationary, will be advanced one position with the retirement of Elias J. Jacoby, the imperial potentate. Because of the death of Nelson K. Lampert, of Chicago, the imperial outer guard who would automatically have become imperial captain of guards, the next higher office, both of these positions were to be filled by election.

Four nobles are candidates for imperial captain of the guards. They are Frank C. Jones, Arabia temple, Houston, Tex.; Earl C. Mills, Za-Ga-Zig temple, Des Moines, Ia.; Thomas J. Huston, Medinah temple, Chicago, and Clarence M. Dunbar, Palestine temple, Providence, R. I. After the selection of a noble to this office the remaining three become candidates for imperial outer guard, and in addition the following nobles are candidates for this office: Leo V. Youngworth, Al Malikh temple, Los Angeles; Thomas S. Tuley, Kosair temple, Louisville; John A. Ballard, Moslem temple, Detroit; L. Whiting Estes, Almas temple, Washington and John S. Fouché, Alhambra temple, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Indications are, it is said, that the committee on time and place will report in favor of holding the 1920 national convention in New Orleans. There may be a minority report in favor of Portland, Ore. In any case, Al Kader temple of Portland, will carry the fight to the floor of the council. The question may be settled on one ballot, as a majority vote is sufficient. It is not known when the council will call up this question.

With the retirement of Elias J. Jacoby, W. Freeland Kendrick of Philadelphia, will undoubtedly be elected imperial potentate; Ellis L. Garretson of Tacoma, Wash., imperial deputy potentate; Ernest A. Cutts, Savannah, Ga., imperial chief rabbi.

SAYS GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP'S DEAD

Senator Watson Expresses Opinion President and Cabinet Intended to Force it on Country

PROVES A DISMAL FAILURE

Indiana Senator Speaks in Favor of Bill, Passed Without Opposition, to Return Wires

Senator James E. Watson of this city, addressing the senate yesterday afternoon on the Kellogg bill providing for the immediate return of the control and operation of telephone and telegraph lines to their owners, expressed the opinion, according to a Washington dispatch, that it had been the intention of President Wilson and members of his Cabinet to force government ownership on the country, but that government operation of the wires had proved to be such a dismal failure that government ownership is now dead for all time. The bill passed without a dissenting vote.

Senator Ponterene, democrat, of Ohio, also spoke and expressed the belief that "there was no necessity whatsoever for the administration taking over the wires."

Senator Watson said that he trusted that the American people after an experience both with railroad and wire control, have learned their lesson and that they will never again have anything to do with government operation or ownership of such utilities.

"If we have learned that lesson so that the next generation will have nothing to do with government operation or ownership, then the great fast of the experiment will be worth something to the country," said the Indiana senator.

The senator said that government operation of such utilities was doomed to failure from the day the government seized the wires and that government operation or ownership always would produce inefficiency and dissatisfaction. It was not so much because of who took over the wires or who operated them as it was the inevitable weakness of government

Came Here From Germany When Young Man—Was Employed in Furniture Factory 38 Years.

WIDOW AND TWO DAUGHTERS

John Schattner, age sixty-seven years, died at his home one mile west of Rushville this morning at two o'clock. Mr. Schattner's illness dated from the Tuesday following Easter, when he fainted while at work at the factory. It is believed the fact that Mr. Schattner, who had been an habitual smoker, gave up his pipe on Easter Sunday and quit smoking, may have contributed to bringing on a nervous breakdown which led to his fatal illness. He refused to smoke again, it is said, after once stopping.

Mr. Schattner was born in Germany, coming to this country when a young man. He was formerly employed at the Innis, Pearce Furniture factory. He worked there for a period of 36 years. He is survived by the wife and two daughters, Mrs. Ross Harris of Jackson, Mich., and Mrs. Harry Heckman of this city. The funeral services will be held Friday morning at nine o'clock in the Catholic church and burial will be made in the Calvary cemetery. The Rev. M. W. Lyons will be in charge.

Pigs Get Worms Very Young

The time to commence feeding Acme Worm Bouncer is from the time they are old enough to eat. Feed from birth to maturity. It will only take a few cents worth to do it, and as "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," it certainly pays to start the pig off right, and if you do so you can keep him right. Worms are persistent pests and they must be fought continuously. There is more money in keeping your pigs free of worms than to let them get worms and then expel them.

PRIVATE PRICE IN FAMOUS REGIMENT

Rush County Boy Worked Under Fire With Sapper Outfit, 114th Engineers of 39th.

LANDED OVERSEAS SEPT. 3

Signing of Armistice Meant no Relief For This Regiment, but Instead Harder Work.

Private Raymond Price, living west of Henderson, who was a member of the famous Sapper Co. of the 114th regiment of the 39th division, has been discharged from the service and has reached his home west of Henderson.

The regiment, which was built up around national guard-men from Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi, was put to war strength by the addition of selected men from Camp Taylor Ky., which accounts for Private Price belonging to the regiment.

The regiment trained at Camp Beauregard, Louisiana from August, 1917, to July 1, 1918, when the first leg of the journey overseas began. Sailing for Brest August 22, the regiment landed September 3 and left for the front October 1.

Meanwhile the 39th division had been turned into the Fifth Depot Replacement division and when the 114th started for the front it was attached to the First Army, detaching at Clemont-en-Argonne, under command of Major Ralph E. Cameron. From there the regiment went into the trenches, the first battalion and regimental headquarters going to La Four de Paris (near Varennes), and the second battalion going to Pierre Croisse (near Vanquois).

In the advanced zone the regiment took over the construction and maintenance of 30 miles of roads over which supplies and troops of the First Army were moved. The 114th was right with the troops in the Meuse offensive, going forward constantly, and fighting night and day to keep the road and bridges in shape for heavy trucks, tanks, tractors and troops. The regiment was cited by the Chief Engineer of the First Army as being the best engineer troops in that area.

The Meuse-Argonne meant many hardships. The big drive called for much road work and the engineers worked night and day repairing roads and keeping traffic on the run. German fortification, machine gun emplacements and dugout materials were used for road and bridge construction.

On November 11 Regimental headquarters had reached Brilles-sur-Bar the companies being distributed in the vicinity, but always working to keep the roads open. The men even were called upon to pull by man-power trucks which had gone into ditches.

The armistice signing meant no relief for the 114th but instead harder work for the roads destroyed by shell fire from both sides, had to be opened so the great march into Germany could be made.

On January 17th the 114th moved to the 19th training area with headquarters had reached Brilles-sur-Bar. Here they made many friends among the French people by their good work and kind treatment.

Admiral Kolchak's reply to the allies' offer of conditional recognition of the Omsk government constitutes a refusal of practically all the conditions laid down by the peace conference, it was learned from an authoritative source today.

The reply contains the following:
1—Refusal to recognize the independence of Finland which the United States, Great Britain and France already have recognized.

2—Refusal to summon the 1917 constitutional assembly giving as a reason the alleged fact that the nations of that body are Bolshevik.

3—Declaration of Kolchak's ranks who want to determine disposition of all outlying Russian territory.

4—Recognition of Poland's importance.

Kolchak's armies, according to last allied information, have retreated an additional 75 miles.

Shortly after nine o'clock.
Fully four thousand men are expected to go out in Chicago alone, Campbell said.
One hundred per cent of the Western Union working force reported for duty today, according to F. T. Jones, Chicago chief operator. No trouble or delay of service is anticipated, he said.

The strike of Western Union operators which began today through the United States, will not effect the Rushville office, as the local operator is not affiliated with the union and will not stop work. However, if officials of the railway operators union send out orders not to accept Western Union or Postal business, as forecast in the above dispatch from St. Louis, they will be obeyed at the C. I. & W. office here, where operators belong to the union.

This means, in the event such orders are received, that it will be impossible to send a Western Union message after eight o'clock at night when the local office closes. It is declared that the strikers will be unable to paralyze business because of the assertion that out of the 40,000 employees of the Western Union, only 700 are affiliated with the union.

SAYS GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP IS DEAD

operation or ownership, the senator said.
"President Wilson and at least three members of his cabinet started out with intention of bringing about government ownership, but government operation proved to be so costly and inefficient that they had to drop the whole plan," he continued.
The senator recalled that Postmaster Burleson, testifying before the interstate commerce committee just after the administration seized the wires last August, had declared that if the same efficient management that characterized the postal service could be applied to the telegraph and telephone that he doubted if the wires ever would be returned to private ownership.

"Mr. Burleson," he said, "made the significant remark at that time that if government control of the wires proved a failure that undoubtedly the wires would be returned. This was to say that if government operation proved a success then government ownership would follow."
"I am led to conclude," said Watson, "that Mr. Burleson now regards his administration of the wires as a failure and I believe that in this the country concurs."

VICTORY ROSE EVENT OPENS AT PORTLAND

Two of the Most Prominent Features are the "Flying Circus" and Fleet of Battleships.

YEARLY TRIBUTE TO THE ROSE

Portland, Oregon, June 11—Portland's most famous annual event, its rose show, opened to-day, with the ringing-down of the final curtain scheduled for Friday night.

The show, this year, is called the Victory Rose Festival, because it is not only the yearly tribute to the rose, but a dual event, including a celebration in honor of the return of soldiers, sailors and marines to Oregon.

Two of the most prominent features of the show are the "flying circus" of airplanes, which came here from Mather field, California, to give daily exhibitions, and the fleet of 10 battleships and cruisers, which are anchored in the Portland harbor.

The "Victory" parade was held this afternoon, practically every Oregon city being represented in the pageant with the float, bearing the war record of the community. Every Oregonian who followed the flag during the world war has been invited to appear in the "Military" parade to-morrow afternoon, and the Friday afternoon feature will be the annual floral parade.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Miss Hallie Marie Fritz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fritz of this city, and William D. Parker of Erie, Pennsylvania, a locomotive fireman.

The Attitude of Congress

Since congress is again in session nearly every American is turning his attention to the question of what the senate will do with the league of nations question. Some days before the gavel fell in both houses, marking the opening of the sixty-sixth congress, which has before it the greatest reconstruction program in the history of the world, the League to Enforce Peace announced that the necessary number of votes were assured to make positive the adoption by the senate of the league of nations plan as a part of the treaty of peace. A great amount of comment has been caused by the issuing of this statement due to the fact that several of the senators listed as for the league plan are opposed to it, one in particular having said there was no reason whatever for using his name as being in favor of the pact. The fact that none of the suggestions of the senate or suggestions from Elihu Root who prepared amendments to be added after the president's second trip to Europe have been adopted or carried out is held to be reason enough for a flat refusal of the plan, at least in its

The less folks amount to, the more snubbing they do.

When you are stung, be glad. You might have been bitten.

More people arrive at the cemetery by the gorge route than any other.

Life is merely a matter of putting in the time at whatever we please.

Congress is never happy unless there is something to chew the rag about.

Hez Heck says: "A woman remembers more about the dresses and hats she sees in church than she does about the sermon."

present form. Senator Lodge, republican leader and chairman of the foreign relations committee, issued a statement at the close of the first day of the new congress in which he made quite plain the fact that the league of nations as now revised is not acceptable to the senate. In fact, he pointed out that the new covenant, "is distinctly worse than the old and more dangerous to the peace of the world and to American rights and interests." Another point made by Senator Lodge was the fact that no report of the treaty (which includes the league plan) has been received except the one which was "incomplete—vague and inaccurate and it is impossible to gather from it what the terms imposed upon Germany in many respects really are."

It is noted on both sides of the two highest law making bodies of the United States that a sentiment has fast been growing to demand a referendum on the league question. The hold-over senators and representatives have practically all been back home since the close of the sixty-fifth congress. The new members come fresh from their respective territories. They have been feeling out the question—in some localities it is demanded as the only fair solution of the matter. One senator upon his return said: "The people of my state want a referendum on the subject. Let them have it. They will dispose of the matter quickly enough. Let the people of the other states do likewise and the world will be rid quickly of the greatest international menace ever suggested to a free people."

Statesmen differ. At the banquet recently given at Paris to the president of Brazil, President Wilson gave the toast and the Brazilian replied. But we could detect in their speeches no resemblance whatever to the well-known exchange of opinion between the Governor of North Carolina and the Governor of South Carolina.

The farmer has to be in lively step from dawn to dark to keep even with the usual pests. Then what will he do this year when the seventeen-year locusts are added to all the others?

If they mention it at all in Boston they undoubtedly term it the chemise dance.

RETURNS TO THE OLD SCHEDULE OF CHARGES

Rushville Telephone Company Notices Change With Government Out of Control

MANY NEW PHONES ADDED

Since the government is no longer in control of the telephone and telegraph lines, the Rushville Co-operative Telephone company has returned to the old schedule of charges, with the exception of rates, which are still effective as instituted some time ago by Postmaster General Burleson.

The new long-distance rates were not such a drawback to the Rushville company, but the service connection charges were the things which hindered the expansion of the local concern. Since government control expired the first of this week, orders have been received for more than a half dozen new telephones in Rushville. The company has been growing this year, in spite of government handicaps, because a new switchboard to accommodate 100 new phones, which was installed the first of this year, is more than half filled, there being only room for thirty more phones.

It is no longer to pay moving charge, as required by the government, if a telephone patron moves from a house into one where there is already a phone. The old schedule for moving phones, with a minimum of $1, where a man has to be sent from the office to do the work, is not in effect.

POWER AND ELECTRIC WASHER

Notice the good features on the Woman's Friend Machine that you will not find on any other washer—

See the large, round rubbing board that you will not find on any other power washer. It is 4 inches larger than on any other machine using the same style rubber, and is the only power washer with the LARGE end of the tub at the top and the Small end at the bottom, which enables you to do a small washing with less water than with the large end of the tub at the bottom. The tubs are made of White Cedar and are 1 1/2 in. thick, which makes the best tub you can buy and will last a life time. You do not need a wash-board when you use the Woman's Friend Power Washer. It will not roll up the clothes. The single and double both have two stationary wringers, which make them solid and more durable than the swinging wringer.

14,500 Miles to the Set of Tires

New National Average established by The FRANKLIN CAR

A nation-wide investigation among Franklin owners has just been completed. It covered all types of the present model in every part of the country, which have been driven day by day for over two years. The results show a delivery of over 14,500 miles to the complete set of tires.

Has Delivered More Than Claimed

When in 1916 the present chassis was put on the market, it was known that its lighter weight would give greater tire economy. Yet former figures of 10,000 miles were not changed in Franklin statements of performance, until owners' results were available. Franklin statements are based on facts, not on estimates.

It is Car Principles That Counts —Not Tires Only

This newly proved economy is just fresh evidence that even the best tires cannot compensate for bad principles of automobile construction. That to save tires, lightness of unsprung weight—weight below the springs—must, in the future, be the continual aim of car designers. That light total weight and flexible construction throughout the car are indispensable to low upkeep.

In the Lead for Seventeen Years

The Franklin Car has always led in economy because for seventeen years it has been continually perfected by the application of those principles which are the basis of economy. Today—the average running expense of its owners is indicated by the figures—

20 miles to the gallon of gasoline
14,500 miles to the set of tires
50% slower yearly depreciation

- 1—Salvation—"He shall be saved."
- 2—Liberty—"Shall go in and go out."
- 3—Nourishment—"Shall find pasture."

"An individual is saved when through faith in Jesus Christ, he enters the fold of Christ. As the defenseless sheep rushing across the plain pursued by its enemy, is conscious of safety as soon as it passes within the fold, so the person who flees from the enemy of his soul senses the security of Christ's fold as soon as he enters.

"Many people say they do not care to yield to Christ because they desire to remain free. The fact is there is no freedom out of Christ. For the unsaved have yielded themselves to the devil and are consequently his servants—or slaves. Sin binds its devotees with hoops of steel until freedom is forever gone or until it is found through obedience to Christ. The Christian need not worry about the pasture. The Good Shepherd will provide for His sheep."

TURN OUT HUNDREDS TRAINED MEN, WOMEN

Indiana Colleges Train Them to Take up the Problems of Re-adjustment.

FEWER GRADUATES THIS YEAR

Indiana colleges today were turning out hundreds of specially trained men and women to take up the problems of re-adjustment, which are coming in the wake of the war. In practically every higher institution of learning sheepskin diplomas were being distributed.

As a general rule the graduating classes this year are smaller than in years past. The war thinned the ranks of college students, in some instances reducing the graduating classes as much as 50 percent. At Wabash college, Crawfordsville, only 20 students were to graduate. This is less than half the usual number.

DePauw university, Greencastle, likewise has a small graduating class—the smallest for years. Only 89 students were to be given their diplomas—most of whom are women.

At Purdue university, Lafayette, however, the class is practically size of that a year ago. The class of 25 special students has three less. Forty-one girls were to receive diplomas—40 in home economics and one in pharmacy. The other students and their courses were: Agriculture 60; chemistry, 19; electrical engineering, 26; civil engineering, 15; mechanical engineering, 51; pharmacy, 3.

Indiana University is graduating 225 in Bachelor of Arts, exclusive of those receiving diplomas in Master of Arts, of medical or law degrees.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Mantle of Charity"—Mystic

Dogs are not permitted in Pullman coaches and pretty and wealthy Norah McDonald has a pet dog which she wants to save from confinement in the baggage car. So she carries the pup in her arms, disguised as a baby, lingerie and all. She starts for her private compartment on the train only to find it claimed also by Paul Howell, a millionaire philanthropist. He becomes interested in the young "mother and child."

Howell volunteers to aid Norah, believing her to be the victim of some deceiver. She lets him remain in that belief, just for the fun of it. He offers her employment at his office at his charity institution and she accepts just to see what will happen. He speaks of the child as the "result of her false step" and momentarily she regrets that she allowed this impression to grow.

On arriving she is met on the platform by Judge Kerr, her foster father. Howell thinks he is "the guilty scamp." At the judge's home Norah tells him that she is taking up settlement work. Inasmuch as she owns much tenement property, the judge thinks is a splendid idea. She takes lodging with one of her poor tenants.

This gives some idea of the delightful story of laughter and satire, which is showing today at the Mystic under the title of "The Mantle of Charity," with Margarita Fisher in the leading role. How Norah succeeds in her charity work forms the balance of the story. Patty Arbuckle is also appearing today in "Patty Cleans Up."

Norma Talmadge at Princess

Norma Talmadge is at the Princess theater today in one of her best pictures, "The New Moon," and Pathe News will also be shown. The celebrated William Faversham and Barbara Castleton will appear in a big feature production, "The Silver King," on Thursday and Friday.

"The Silver King" deals with the adventures of Wilfred Denver, an English country squire, who is ruined by a supposed friend in revenge for cutting him out in the affection of a beautiful girl whom Denver marries. Years later, Waze induces Denver to bet all he owned upon a Derby race, the result being that he is impoverished. When Denver learns Waze is taking over the success of his scheme, he goes to the latter's house at night with the intention to kill him, but Waze instead is slain by the leader of a band of robbers.

the latter's house at night with the intention to kill him, but Waze instead is slain by the leader of a band of robbers.

Denver is suspected of the crime, but he evades arrest by fleeing to this country and he amasses a fortune in a Western mining camp. His wife and friends, as well as the police, believe him to have been killed in a railway accident and when he reappears in England under an assumed name, exciting events ensue. Denver's innocence of murder is established and he is reunited with his family.

Mr. Faversham is supported by Barbara Castleton, who plays opposite to him; Warburton Gamble, John Sunderland, and other well known players.

SOLDIERS HOMECOMING.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 11—Business and commercial organizations of Terre Haute joined with the state Normal School in a homecoming for soldiers of the Wabash valley here today. There are more than 700 former soldiers, who left the normal school to enter the service, besides the hundreds of others who left the city proper and Vigo county. There was to be a parade, a barbecue, with athletic contests and dancing.

Mrs. William Cross of North Willow street, who has been seriously ill for some time, not having fully recovered from the influenza, is reported as getting along nicely.

REO

Electric Starting, Lighting and On Pneumatic Tires

THESE THREE innovations when introduced by the Reo engineers revolutionized Motor Truck standards and multiplied Motor Truck efficiency.

THIS REO "SPEED WAGON" was the first Motor Truck to be equipped with electric starter and electric lights.

AND IT WAS ALSO THE FIRST vehicle designed exclusively for trucking—not a converted touring car, but especially designed for commercial use only—to be equipped with pneumatic tires.

THE VERY MAKERS who are now striving to imitate this Reo "Speed Wagon"—and doing so as to looks, but not in performance!—these very rivals flouted the idea when first introduced by Reo.

WE NO LONGER NEED to explain the tremendous advantages—the greater efficiency—of this type of Motor Truck.

IMITATION—the sincerest form of flattery—is doing that. Rivals are doing we can do.

SUFFICE IT TO SAY then, that when you have decided you need a speedy, sturdy, economical truck for your own use, prudence dictates that you insist on an original—not an imitation.

THIS REO IS THE ORIGINAL and, having been in service now more than four years—tens of thousands of them—its superiority has been proven beyond cavil.

IF YOU CAN get a Reo "Speed Wagon" you will know you have the best. If you can't—

THERE'S THE RUB—demand has always been vastly greater than the output, though that also is the largest in the world of this type of truck.

OUR OWN QUOTA has never been sufficient to supply all who wanted Reos. Tardy buyers, waiting till the last moment to order have had to be denied, much to our regret.

SO THE ONLY WAY to be at all sure of getting a Reo "Speed Wagon" is to order early—now. Don't delay. Demand increases apace while there's a limit to Reo factory capacity.

BETTER SEE ABOUT THIS at once. Delay may result in your having to accept your second choice in lieu of a Reo.
